WANDERINGS.

GEORGETTE B HALL

When Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kennedy, the President's brother and sister-in-law, were presented at the Krewe of Carrollton Ball in New Orleans Sunday night, two lovely ladies from this area were present. Miss Linda Normand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Normand of Bay St. Louis, reigned as Queen of the glittering affair, and Miss Geraldine Bourgeois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bourgeois, Sr., of Waveland, was one of the Maids to Her Majesty. The ball climaxed a parade held earlier in the day.

The Queen was dazzling in a gown of French pink slipper satin combined with snowy fur water adds interest. Other plant material and accessories from nature, such as rocks, allowed.

Class 9: "Corsages" — Formal and informal.

Note: All plant material must be fresh. No dried or painted plant material may be used.

Photographs of all Blue Ribbon winners (except Class 9) in Artistic Division will be sent to The American Camellia Society for judging in their National Contest.

To prevent further spread of Camellia petal blight, all flowers will be destroyed after the show.

to achieve a tiered effect. The gown was encrusted in imported Austrian rhinestones and tear drops and was decorated with rhinestone banding. The regal mantle, of deep pink velvet, was richly bordered in white fur and decorated with glittering floral motifs. Carrying out the concert theme, Miss Bourgeois and other maids portrayed famous musical compositions. Miss Bourgeois represented Waveland's "Bolero."

Both Miss Normand and Miss Bourgeois are graduates of Bay High School.

Tension and excitement are at fever pitch as we go to press with everyone trying to guess the identity of their Royal Majesties, the King and Queen of the St. Joseph's Carnival Ball to be presented this Friday night at 9:00 P.M. Theme of the ball is "Around the World in 80 Days" and from all we hear those who attend are in for an evening of color, beauty and entertainment. Everyone is urged to get tickets as the ball promises to be a sell-out.

Sympathy is extended through this column to the relatives and friends of Captain C. M. Torgerson who died Saturday in the Veterans Hospital in Biloxi where he had been taken after suffering a stroke at his Waveland home on Beach Boulevard. Burial was in the Garden of Memories Cemetery following funeral services Sunday afternoon at Fahey-Whitfield Funeral Home and religious rites at Christ Episcopal Church.

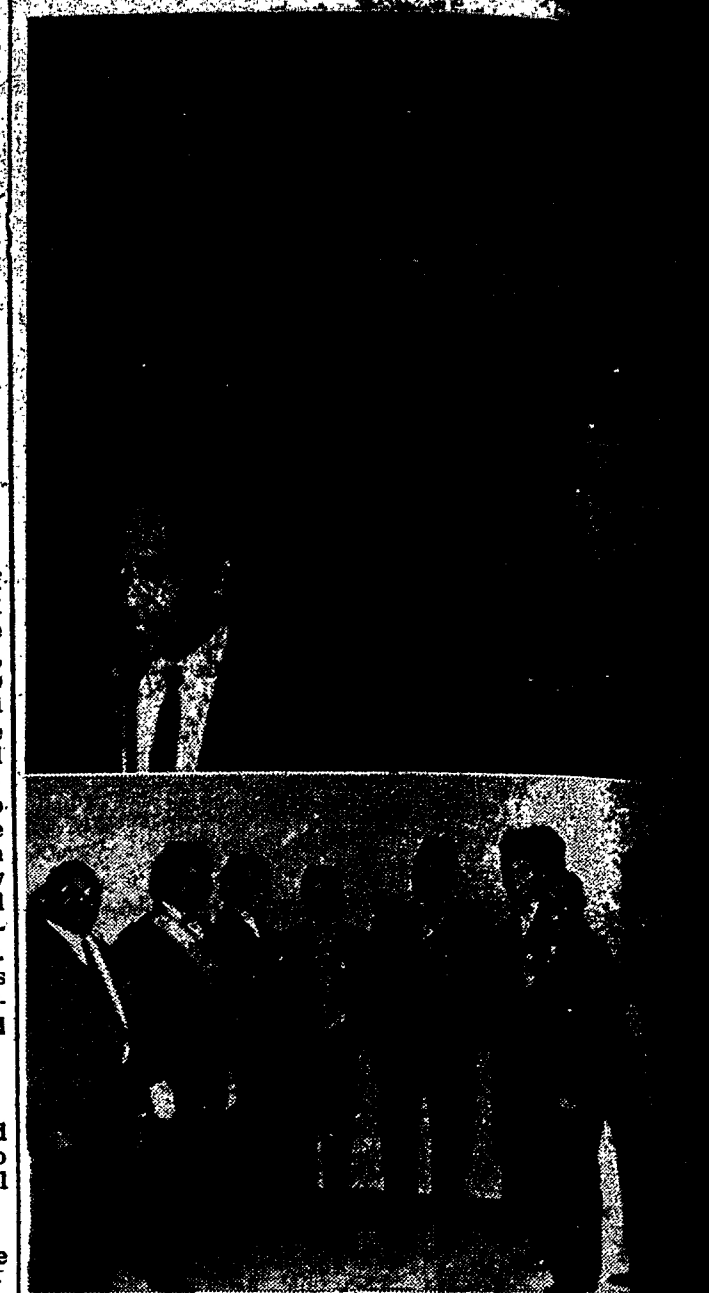

Get well wishes are sent to Mrs. Barbara White who is presently in Anahuac, Texas, where she has gone for surgery. Her husband and children are with her.

Guests during the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. James McConnell on Oak Blvd. were Mr. Marché Schwartz, of Oakland, California, and Mr. Sam Garrison, of Palo Alto, California. Our readers will remember Mr. Schwartz as one of the country's all time football greats, having made All-American at Notre Dame for two years. Mr. Schwartz, a long-time friend of Mr. McConnell, was on his way from Chicago to New Orleans to see his family and friends and stopped by in Waveland to renew an old friendship.

Mr. Schwartz's son, Jimmie, is named after Mr. James McConnell. A most enjoyable week-end was had.

Get well wishes are extended to young George Mayfield who is confined to Hancock General Hospital.

ning this Friday in Jackson are several members of the Bay High chapter. Making big plans for the trip are Ulrike Wincklemann, Kees Brameyer, and James Mayfield from Waveland. Other students from Bay St. Louis will also make the trip.

Mrs. William Ruhr, the Rev. Dale Lyons and his grandmother, Mrs. Ware, enjoyed a matinee performance of Ben Hur this week. The wonderfully inspiring Biblical movie is playing in Gulfport. Plan to see it!

Much happiness to two young couples, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Asher, (she, the former Kathleen Her-ity of Waveland, and Bay Saint Louis) who married last Saturday and Gayle Parker, and Ald Bienvenu who will be married Saturday at 2:00 P.M. at the Lady of the Gulf Church.

Another marriage claim interest this week is the wedding of Raymond Cuevas, son of Mrs. Cuevas, of Waveland, and Karin Koempel. The couple married in Frankfurt, Germany where Sgt. Cuevas is with the U. S. Army.

Continued wishes for health are sent weekly to John Garza, Mrs. Adeline, Mr. O. H. Williams, Mrs. Bourgeois, and all the who are shut in either in the hospital.

New March of Dimes Enlists Millions in Battle to Prevent Crippling Diseases

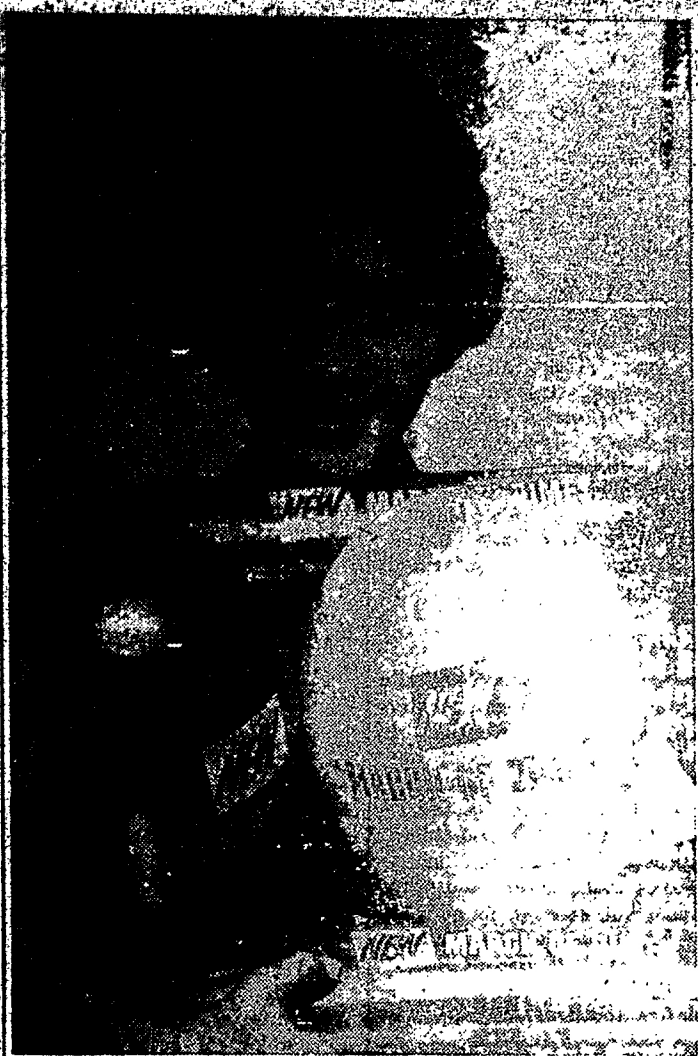

Beginning Jan. 3 and throughout the month, millions of Americans will assist in the annual campaign to prevent crippling diseases by joining the 1961 New March of Dimes.

In thousands of communities—crossroads, hamlets, towns, great cities—special ceremonies will mark the start of the National Foundation's campaign for dimes and dollars to combat birth defects, arthritis and polio; to pursue research into these and allied medical problems, and to train health workers.

Climaxing the 1961 New March of Dimes will be the Mothers' March, held on the evening of Tuesday, Jan. 31 in most areas, during which more than a million women and other volunteers will make home-to-home calls asking support to help prevent crippling diseases. Participants in the Mothers' March will wear a lapel identification badge and they will leave in every home an educational pamphlet of "Do's and Don'ts" relating to birth defects and expectant mothers, and another dealing with warning signs and symptoms of arthritis.

The goal of the 1961 New March of Dimes, to cover needed expenditures in research, patient aid and professional education, is $45 million. As always, a heavy financial burden on The National Foundation and its 3,100 chapters is the cost of old polio cases. (In 1960, patient-aid outlays to some 40,000 victims totaled approximately $13,250,000.)

Most communities in January will stage a "kickoff" ceremony in which local dignitaries and other personalities will participate. Chief purpose of these events will be to call attention again to the magnitude of the expanded program of The National Foundation and to emphasize that one of every 16 infants in the U.S. is born with a significant birth defect; that fully 11 million in the nation are afflicted with some form of rheumatism including arthritis; and that the staggering costs of polio will continue in 1961.

Joan Perry of Perth Amboy, N. J., national chairman of The National Foundation's Teen Age Program (TAP), is up to her pretty chin in New March of Dimes balloons, to be sold throughout January.

Members of TAP (Teen Age Program) and other young people across the country will be active in their local areas in January in organizing colorful special events. Among these will be coffee parties, airfests, sales of March of Dimes rainbow crutches and balloons and bowling and other sports events. They will also help address the 38 million New March of Dimes mailers to be sent to the nation's homes. In addition, they will assist adults in making preparations for fashion shows, auctions, telethons and other New March of Dimes benefits. Posters and other campaign materials to be seen across the face of the land will bear the appeal, "Please Say Yes to the New March of Dimes."

TE PEOPLE GAVE MORE IN 1960
Mississippi firms and individuals contributed approximately $2,000 for philanthropic purposes in 1960 according to an analysis just completed. The total includes annual budgets and capital funds raised for all institutions and organizations in the state dependent upon philanthropic support. The estimated amount of given by Mississippi and other individual state is based on a 3-year average percentage of contributions as related to personal income. Mississippi philanthropic record compares favorably with that of other states.

NEW NEIGHBOR

When Betty Marlowe moved into our neighborhood we invited her to join the garden club and the baby sitters' club and the civic association, but it never occurred to any of us to ask her if she'd like to go to church.

Then, one Saturday, she phoned me. "My husband is often out of town on Sundays and I don't have the car when he's away," she explained. "Would you and Bill mind if I went to church with you?"

Mind! We were delighted—but I was also a little ashamed. And I wondered how many others there were in our neighborhood who would like to go to our church, if they were given the encouragement of an invitation.

From now on, I'm not waiting to be asked. I'm asking first!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Mark	13	20-31
Monday	I Peter	4	8-9
Tuesday	Psalm	94	4-5
Wednesday	Romans	15	1-3
Thursday	Psalm	81	8-12
Friday	I John	5	14-18

Dietrich-Dumestre Wedding

St. Alphonsus Church in New Orleans was the setting for the wedding Saturday of Miss Piccola Marie Dumestre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jules H. Dumestre of New Orleans, La., and Waveland, Miss., and Mr. Louis G. Dietrich Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dietrich Sr. of New Orleans.

The Rev. Father Thomas Moore was celebrant of the nuptial Mass. Mr. Lloyd Celestano played the organ and sang during the ceremony.

The double ring ceremony was performed before an altar banked with vases of white gladioli and pom pom chrysanthemums. Tall baskets of flowers were on either side of the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin fashioned with a full skirt forming a train to the back. The fitted bodice featured a round neckline embroidered in seed pearls and long sleeves ending in a point over the hands. Her veil of illusion was attached to a band of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls and a bracelet, a gift of the groom.

Miss Diane Grass of Waveland was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Margie Legendre, Mary Hebert, Carmel Gorgone, Sydney Trower, Charlene Cellos, Joy LeBlanc and Leona Uzetta, all of New Orleans. Darcel Russell of Waveland was junior bridesmaid, and flower girls were Margaret Dietrich, sister of the groom and Mary Ferguson.

The Bridesmaids wore identical street length dresses of light blue velvet made with square necks and long sleeves. They wore matching bows on their heads and carried white sweetheart roses. The maid of honor wore a dress in a darker shade of blue. Mr. Bobby Powell of New Orleans served as best man, and groomsmen were Messrs. Allen Hebert, Charles Jackson, Leland Dietrich, Pat O'Brien, Cyrus Uzetta, and Lloyd Jackson. Junior groomsmen were Billie Dietrich, Dickie Dietrich and Michael Ferguson.

A reception was held at the Enlisted Men's club at Jackson Barracks. The bride's table, covered with a white imported linen cloth, was trimmed with white flowers and a tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Dumestre chose for her daughter's wedding a pearl gray lace dress, black accessories and an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a blue, linen frock, green accessories and an orchid corsage.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a royal blue wool dress, white hat and gloves, and blue accessories; a white orchid on her shoulder completed her ensemble.

The bride is a graduate of Redemptorist High School in New Orleans, and the groom is presently serving in the U. S. Navy.

"The Plunderers" At Legion Theatre Beginning Feb. 16

Jeff Chandler fell so much in love with 319 pages of bare screenplay that he built a motion picture company around them. That's the story of August Productions and its first offering, "The Plunderers," an Allied Artists release coming Thursday to the Legion Theatre, with Jeff, John Saxon, and Dolores Hart heading the cast.

"Don't call it a Western," warns the six-foot-four president of the company. And although the picture's laid in a small Texas town just after the Civil War, he's got a point there.

"The Plunderers" could just as well have laid in modern New York City, London, Tokyo, or Bogota. What it has to say is that widely pertinent in our time.

Four young cowboys ride into Trial City at dusk on their way home from a cattle drive to Kansas. They drink the saloonkeeper's whiskey and tell him they can't pay. The sheriff is conciliatory. They grow bolder. The townsfolk keep appeasing them. And what began with a trifle explodes in a crisis for themselves and the whole community.

John Saxon plays one of the boys, a vaquero called Rondo, who precipitates the conflict by moving in on the girl Chandler loves (Miss Hart). The other are Ray Stricklyn, Roger Turvey, and Dee Pollock. It is Chandler who finally resolves the situation, but not until he, like the town, has been taught a lesson.

NOTICE TO CREDITOR NO. 6580 Notice is hereby given that letters Testamentary on the estate of Bernice Matthews, deceased, were granted to the undersigned by the Chancery Court of Hancock County, Mississippi, on the 8th day of February, 1961, and all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present their claims to the Clerk of said Court and to have them probated and allowed within six months from this date, failure to do so will bar the claim.

This 8th day of February, 1961, BERNICE MONTGOMERY, EXECUTRIX, ESTATE OF BERNICE MATTHEWS, DECEASED.

Kantcha Ketchum

Every day question? — How's fishing? — Not so good—too cold and bad water!

Raoul Telhard and August Rauxet caught a mess of green trout and perch Sunday evening, despite the weather. Dec Elliott was the paddler.

Louis Oliver and Andrew Bourgeois were up Jordan River last weekend, trying out the boat made by August Rauxet—they are good they said.

All hunting ended last week end. Joe Kern and Dr. McKinley wound up the quail season.

Rabbit hunters finished the season also.

Sorry to hear that Bob Genin is on the sick list again.

Horatio Favre says he caught some nice green trout about a week ago.

Horace Farr says he waiting for the specks to show up out front. He gets his share.

Marvin E. Boykin of Calvert, Alabama, is down for a short vacation again. Marvin owns a fishing camp at Calvert. Wants us to visit him sometime.

Alfred Daspit, chief Clerk and comptroller in New Orleans says he is waiting for better weather to go fishing. He has a home in Waveland and spends his week ends there.

Larry Larroux and Dec Elliott tried fresh water fishing last Saturday. No good was the report.

"Bub" Genin was down from college last week end—couldn't do much of anything, he said.

Glad to see where Billy Maxwell won the $50,000 Palm Springs Golf Tournament in Calif. Met Billy in Baton Rouge a couple of years ago.

I REMEMBER WHEN . . . If we didn't get 60 to 70 green trout in a day it was bad, said Bob Genin. No limit in those days.

There were so many doves in a field, they had to back up to take off—said Deck Elliott.

Soft crabs were caught by the basket full—Frank Kirk.

Mulletts were so plentiful they would jump in the boat—Teddy Morrell.

Plenty of duck were killed in Cut Off Lake, etc., up Jordan River—Larry Larroux.

When Joe Kern, Joe diBenedetto, August Rauxet, Alden Maufrey, Johnny Scaife, Joe Glover, Eddie Heath, Walter James Phillips started fly fishing, including myself. Years roll by.

Asher-Herlihy Wedding

Miss Kathleen Jacqueline Herlihy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Leonard Herlihy, became the bride of Mr. Terrence Curtis Asher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Asher in a double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon in our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church.

Rev. Fr. Kevin Reed performed the ceremony before an altar trimmed with arrangements of white gladioli and pom pom chrysanthemums.

Professor Joseph Hemmersbach, organist, played a program of nuptial music during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of magnolia white perle de sole fashioned on princess lines. The sabrina neckline was trimmed with lace embroidered in seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of lilies of the valley and white carnations, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Carol Knight, of New Orleans, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were her cousins Misses Mary Lou Herlihy of Waveland and Miss Marsha McQueen of New Orleans.

They wore street length dresses of pale blue silk organza over tulle. The fitted bodices featured rounded necklines; and short puffed sleeves; a flat matching bow trimmed the back of the bodice. Their headpieces were fashioned of shaded pink armbands with a circular veil of tulle. They carried crescent shaped bouquets of deep pink carnations.

The flower girl, Brenda Laura, niece of the bride, wore a pink floor length gown and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Mr. Albert Asher was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Charles Feigel of Bay St. Louis and Mr. James Landry of New Orleans. William Noland of New Orleans and Patrick Fury of Napoleon served as ushers.

Potted palms decorated the Knights of Columbus Hall for the reception following the ceremony.

The bride's table, covered with an imported linen cloth was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake encircled with fern and white pom poms.

Mrs. Herlihy received their guests wearing a rose beige dress, pink flowered hat and matching accessories. A green orchid was pinned to her shoulder.

The groom's mother chose a light blue wool suit with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a powder blue wool suit, small flowered hat and beige accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid from her bouquet.

On their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Asher will reside at their home on Highway 90.

The bride is a graduate of Bay High School, and the groom, a graduate of Bay High, is engaged in the building and contracting business.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Charles Feigel, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Carl Feigel and sons, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hughes and daughters, Mr. Tobin Underwood, Jr., Miss Helen Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McQueen, Miss Bertha McQueen, Miss Lillian McQueen, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laura, Jr. and daughters, Sandra, Patricia Ann and Brenda, all of New Orleans. Mrs. Clyde Drummond, and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Capdepon of Gulfport and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lambing of Mississippi City.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH Chief Yeoman and Mrs. Leo J. Taconi, Jr. announce the birth of their third child and second daughter, Rose Marie, February 28 in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Mrs. Taconi is the former Carol Dexter of Danbury, Conn. The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Taconi, Sr. of Bay St. Louis, Miss.

Chief Yeoman Taconi has been serving in the U. S. Navy for 13 years and he and his family have been making their home in Honolulu for the past two years.

A New $9,800,000 Crop for MISSISSIPPI in 1961
That's what the member-owners of the Electric Power Associations in Mississippi will spend for electric appliances, equipment and fixtures alone this year.
Through normal channels of trade, this $9,800,000 will turn over four times this year. This means more money in your pocket, whether you live in a rural area or in town.
A new market? Not exactly. It began as far back as 25 years ago with the formation of the First Electric Power Association in Mississippi.
It is a market which would not exist, even today, in Mississippi without these Electric Power Associations. It exists because rural Mississippians, finding electricity was not available through any other source, formed these Associations. To do so, they borrowed money, which they are repaying with interest, while they sell themselves electricity.
The result: An easier life and a tremendous boost to the economy of the entire state.
To almost a million Mississippians, rural electrification is the best crop they ever planted.

It is a market which would not exist, even today, in Mississippi without these Electric Power Associations. It exists because rural Mississippians, finding electricity was not available through any other source, formed these Associations. To do so, they borrowed money, which they are repaying with interest, while they sell themselves electricity.
The result: An easier life and a tremendous boost to the economy of the entire state.
To almost a million Mississippians, rural electrification is the best crop they ever planted.
COAST ELECTRIC POWER ASSOCIATION
Bay St. Louis

A New $9,800,000 Crop for MISSISSIPPI in 1961
That's what the member-owners of the Electric Power Associations in Mississippi will spend for electric appliances, equipment and fixtures alone this year.
Through normal channels of trade, this $9,800,000 will turn over four times this year. This means more money in your pocket, whether you live in a rural area or in town.
A new market? Not exactly. It began as far back as 25 years ago with the formation of the First Electric Power Association in Mississippi.
